

Fall 1979

Tim Roark, Editor

New MOH appointed

On May 28th Mayor Jack Volrich announced the appointment of Dr. David R. Kinloch as City Medical Health Officer. Dr. Kinloch is expected to join the Health Department in July of this year. He is replacing Dr. G.H. Bonham who resigned to join the Provincial Government's Ministry of Health in Victoria.

Dr. Kinloch, a Canadian, obtained his M.D. degree from the University of Alberta in 1958 and, following residency and general practice in Victoria, continued his studies at the University of London's School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine. There his field of special interest was Epidemiology and he obtained his Diploma in Public Health in 1962. Later he attended Harvard University's School of Public Health and in 1972 was certified as a specialist in this field by the American Board of Preventive Medicine.

Formerly Deputy Commissioner in the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Dr. Kinloch has also occupied senior public health positions in Canada. Between 1973 to 1977 he served in Quebec as Special Advisor to the Deputy Minister of Social Affairs (Health, Policy and Programs) and as Provincial Director of Planning for Health Services. During 1971 to 1973 he was Medical Director of the Ontario Health Insurance Plan. His earlier experience includes government service in the Yukon and North West Territories and in Massachusetts as Director of Medical Care.

Dr. David Kinloch

Dr. and Mrs. Kinloch and their four children presently reside in Boston, Massachusetts.
