Island Health

Island Health is hiring multiple Environmental Health Officers across Vancouver Island.

If you are looking for a meaningful career move—and a change in lifestyle—Island Health welcomes you. Join a team that values your knowledge and recognizes the impact of your work.

We have five full-time opportunities (two permanent and three temporary) in Victoria, Nanaimo, Campbell River and Port Hardy.

What You'll Do

In this role, you will be responsible for carrying out a diverse program of environmental health protection.

Using your professional and technical skills, you will help reduce the incidence of communicable disease, injury, and health hazards. Duties include inspecting eating and food handling establishments, sewage disposal systems, water supplies, and public services premises. You will also investigate complaints and enforce compliance with municipal by-laws, government acts, and regulations. This position involves working within both urban and rural areas of Island Health.

What You Will Need to Apply

- Bachelor's degree in Environmental Health or equivalent recognized by the Board of Certification, Canadian Institute of Public Health Inspectors.
- Certificate in Public Health Inspection (Canada).
- Eligible for registration with the Canadian Institute of Public Health Inspectors, BC Branch.
- Valid BC Driver's License.
- Three years of recent, related experience (or equivalent).

What We Offer

- Competitive salary: $41.65 - $51.99 per hour
- Comprehensive benefits including health, dental and vision
- Municipal Pension Plan with employer contributions
- 4 weeks paid vacation (prorated to FTE) plus 13 statutory holidays
