Public Health Inspector Degree

Short Description:

Reporting to a Public Health Inspector Supervisor, the Public Health Inspector is responsible for a comprehensive environmental health program in the community. Using a variety of professional and technical skills the public health inspector protects individual and community wellness through health promotion activities and enforcement of provincial acts and regulations as well as bylaws.

"Preference for this position will be given to HSAS members in accordance with the terms and conditions of the SAHO/HSAS Collective Agreement"

Description

Position #: V41643

Expected Start Date: November 23, 2026

Union: HSAS

Facility: Population and Public Health - Regina

City/Town: Regina

Department: Public Health Inspection

Type: Full-time regular

Shift Information: Days, Evenings, Weekends, Stats

Number of Hours per Rotation: 112 hours per 3 weeks

Salary or Pay Band: Pay Band Public Health Inspector - Degree $38.137 to $46.554

Travel Required: Yes

Job Description: Reporting to a Public Health Inspector Supervisor, the Public Health Inspector is responsible for a comprehensive environmental health program in the community. Using a variety of professional and technical skills the public health inspector protects individual and community wellness through health promotion activities and enforcement of provincial acts and regulations as well as bylaws. Preference for this position will be given to HSAS members in accordance with the terms and conditions of the SAHO/HSAS Collective Agreement

Education

- Bachelor of Science in Environmental Health (BSEH)

Licenses

- Certificate in Public Health Inspector (Canada) (CPHI(C))

Knowledge and Abilities

- Provide training/info. for residential, recreation, commercial premises
- Ability to performs tech. assessments, provides consultative/educational services
- Ability to facilitate community development and encourages a healthy environment
- Ability to facilitate reduction of communicable diseases and health hazards
- Ability to investigate complaints to ensure compliance with legislation

Other Information

- For more information on the city of Regina please visit https://www.regina.ca/
- Must possess a valid driver's license and have a vehicle available for work.
- Travel within Saskatchewan

Application Method: Interested applicants are invited to submit their application by email to michael.mccann@saskhealthauthority.ca.